- (3) The Contractor shall provide such records and accounts during the Contract and for a period of six years after the termination or expiry of the Contract to the Authority and the Auditor.
- (4) The Authority shall use reasonable endeavours to ensure that the conduct of each audit does not unreasonably disrupt the Contractor or delay the provision of the Services, except insofar as the Contractor accepts and acknowledges that control over the conduct of audits carried out by the Auditor is outside of the control of the Authority.

expense re-schedule and perform the work correctly within such reasonable time as maybe specified by the Authority. If the Contractor is unable to do so after using good faith efforts, the Contractor must reimburse the Authority all Charges paid for such Services and any other Services that cannot be fully used by the Authority as a consequence of that failure.

- (3) If the performance of the Contract by the Contractor is delayed by reason of any act or default on the part of the Authority or by industrial dispute (other than by an industrial dispute occurring within the Contractor's or its sub-contractor's organisation) or any other cause which the Contractor could not have prevented then the Contractor shall be allowed a reasonable extension of time for completion. For the purposes of this clause, the Contractor shall be deemed to have been able to prevent causes of delay that are within the reasonable control of the Contractor and Contractor Personnel.

- (5) If after allowing a reasonable period of time the Contractor fails to comply with clause

17(2), 17(3) or 17(4) and the Authority decides that such failure is prejudicial to its interests, the Authority may immediately terminate the Contract by notice in writing to the Contractor, provided that such termination shall be without prejudice to any accrued rights of, or to any rights that shall accrue thereafter to the Authority.

20. TERMINATION FOR BREACH OF CONTRACT

If either Party commits a material breach of the Contract which is either not capable of remedy, or, if it is capable of remedy, there is failure to remedy such breach within 14 days of being notified by the other Party in writing to do so, that other party shall be entitled to terminate the Contract with immediate effect by notice in writing to the Party that committed the material breach and without prejudice to any other rights or remedies of either Party in respect of the breach concerned or any other breach of the Contract.

In the case of any conflict or inconsistency between these Conditions and the Specification, Contract Letter, or any other document forming part of the Contract, these Conditions shall prevail unless otherwise specifically agreed in writing by the Authority.

26. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

- (1) The Contractor shall ensure that there is no conflict of interest as to be likely to prejudice its independence and objectivity in performing the Contract and undertakes that upon becoming aware of any such conflict of interest during the performance of the Contract (whether the conflict existed before the award of the Contract or arises during its performance) it shall immediately notify the Authority in writing of the same, giving particulars of its nature and the circumstances in which it exists or arises and shall furnish such further information as the Authority may reasonably require.
- (2) Where the Authority is of the opinion that the conflict of interest notified to it under clause 26(1) above is capable of being avoided or removed, the Authority may require the Contractor to take such steps as will, in its opinion, avoid, or as the case may be, remove the conflict and:
 - a) if the Contractor fails to comply with the Authority's requirements in this respect; or
 - b) if, in the opinion of the Authority, it is not possible to remove the conflict, the Authority may terminate the Contract immediately and recover from the Contractor the amount of any loss resulting from such termination.

- (3) Notwithstanding clause 26(2), where the Authority is of the opinion that the conflict of interest which existed at the time of the award of the Contract could have been discovered with the application by the Contractor of due diligence and ought to have been disclosed as required by the tender documents or Contract Letter pertaining to it, the Authority may terminate the Contract immediately for breach of a fundamental condition and, without prejudice to any other rights, recover from the Contractor the amount of any loss resulting from such termination.

- (4) Upon request the Authority can request that evidence be produced from the Contractor that due diligence has been undertaken when awarding any aspect of work to Contractor Personnel who may be engaged in this contract.
