Your request:

Good afternoon,

I hope this email finds you well. I am writing to submit a Freedom of Information request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000. Should this not be the correct email address can I ask that this be forwarded on please.

I would like to request the following information regarding your organisation's apprenticeship offerings:

1. What apprenticeship programmes are currently offered internally within your organisation?
2. Is your organisation an apprenticeship levy payer? If so, could you provide details about how the levy is utilised?
3. The contact details (name, email, and/or phone number) for the person(s) responsible for Learning & Development and apprenticeships within your organisation.

I would appreciate it if this information could be provided in electronic format. Should any part of my request require clarification, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Thank you for your time and assistance. I look forward to your response.

Our response:

Thank you for your request. We have handled your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

1. There are no apprenticeship programmes currently offered internally within the organisation.
2. The CCC is not an apprenticeship levy payer.

3. The CCC does not have a member of staff responsible for learning and development and apprenticeships.

Information disclosed in response to this FOIA request is releasable to the public. In keeping with the spirit and effect of the FOIA and the government's Transparency Agenda, this letter and the information disclosed to you may be placed on the CCC website, together with any related information that will provide a key to its wider context. No information identifying you will be placed on the CCC website.

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request, you have the right to ask for an internal review. If you are not content with the outcome of the review, you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. In keeping with our transparency policy, the information released to you will be published on www.theccc.org.uk. Please note that this publication will not include your personal data.

Kind regards,

Climate Change Committee
