Your request:

Good afternoon,

I hope you're doing well. May I request the following as an FOI please:

Internal projections over whether the government will hit its climate targets for 2030 and Net Zero for 2050.

Thanks a million

[name redacted]

Our response:

Thank you for your request. We have handled your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

The CCC's latest projections on how the UK Government can hit its climate targets for 2030 and 2050 are published in our Seventh Carbon Budget advice report, available on our website. Our latest assessment on the UK Government's progress on hitting its climate targets is available in our 2024 Progress Report to Parliament, available on our website.

We will be publishing an updated assessment of the UK Government's progress towards these targets in our climate change mitigation progress report to Parliament, which will be published on 25 June 2025.

The CCC does not hold any other information on internal projections over whether the government will hit its climate targets for 2030 and Net Zero for 2050.

Information disclosed in response to this FOIA request is releasable to the public. In keeping with the spirit and effect of the FOIA and the government's Transparency Agenda, this letter and the information disclosed to you may be placed on the CCC website, together with any related information that will provide a key to its wider context. No information identifying you will be placed on the CCC website.

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request, you have the right to ask for an internal review. If you are not content with the outcome of the review, you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. In keeping with our transparency policy, the information released to you will be published on www.theccc.org.uk. Please note that this publication will not include your personal data.

Kind regards,

Climate Change Committee
