Your request:

Freedom of Information request

What are the total costs of green subsidies paid by households in the UK through their energy bills?

Our response:

Thank you for your request. We have handled your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

The CCC do not hold this information. However, you may find the Ofgem website helpful for more information on the breakdown of the energy price cap (including the price cap for government social and environmental schemes), and information to help you understand your electricity and gas bill.

For more information on the CCC's previous analysis on fuel poverty, energy bills, and other household costs, please see page 295 of our Sixth Carbon Budget advice report, and our Energy Prices and Bills Report 2017.

Information disclosed in response to this FOIA request is releasable to the public. In keeping with the spirit and effect of the FOIA and the government's Transparency Agenda, this letter and the information disclosed to you may be placed on the CCC website, together with any related information that will provide a key to its wider context. No information identifying you will be placed on the CCC website.

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request, you have the right to ask for an internal review. If you are not content with the outcome of the review, you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. In keeping with our transparency policy, the information released to you will be published on www.theccc.org.uk. Please note that this publication will not include your personal data.

Kind regards,
