Your request:

Dear Committee on Climate Change,

Thanks for your response to my EIR request about Nigel Topping's declaration of interests. I am now asking you to conduct an internal review of your decision to refuse the request under s21. It is not clear at all how the public information, which I had reviewed prior to the request, actually answers my questions. Kindly acknowledge receipt of this request.

thanks

Our response:

Thank you for your request. We have handled your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA). Please find our response below.

We confirm that Mr Topping's review was done in line with our processes; that information is in the public domain, which is why we applied the exemption listed. We can also confirm that we hold no further information on this topic.

Information disclosed in response to this FOIA request is releasable to the public. In keeping with the spirit and effect of the FOIA and the government's Transparency Agenda, this letter and the information disclosed to you may be placed on the CCC website, together with any related information that will provide a key to its wider context. No information identifying you will be placed on the CCC website.

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request, you have the right to ask for an internal review. If you are not content with the outcome of the review, you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. In keeping with our transparency policy, the information released to you will be published on www.theccc.org.uk. Please note that this publication will not include your personal data.

Kind regards,
Climate Change Committee
